

Who we are

Ashlea is proud to be the UK's franchised distributor for Lyontek, Solentec and JB Capacitors as well as authorised for Rose & Bopla and Vigortronix. We are also an independent distributor and since 1987 have established links with main overseas franchises and these along with direct trading with many manufacturers make us extremely price competitive with full guarantees. We are able to supply every type of electronic component from practically any manufacturer world wide.

We have a huge range of customers; OEMS, CEMS both military and commercial world wide and we now have an Ebay Shop to widen the field further.

What we do

Ashlea has been carefully built to serve the needs of our customers by way of quoting promptly, accurately and competitively. All goods are shipped to the customers delivery requirement offering scheduled drops, kan bans, flexible MOQs and pack sizes at no extra cost. Alongside this we are also able to offer programming, component testing, reeling and de-reeling among many additional services. If you have Annual Tenders or BOMs we are happy to quote on these.

What you get

All of the Account Managers at Ashlea are also purchasers, which means you get another team member for no additional overheads. You will get one dedicated Account Manager so you always know who to talk to. They know it is extremely important to have easy, efficient and cost-effective sourcing. Their extensive industry experience guarantees that any international price gaps are taken advantage of and they will negotiate on your behalf to ensure you get the best prices and quality product within the deadline you require.
